

The next meeting of the

National Capital Area Chapter

of the Association of Professional Genealogists will be held on Saturday, October 18th, 2014 at 2:00pm at the National Archives in room G25 or with Go To Webinar!<sup>1</sup>

After a brief meeting our program will be

The Baltimore City Archives: Its History and Holdings

Presented by Malissa Ruffner

Malissa Ruffner will give a brief history of BCA—from the earliest days to its current association with the Maryland State Archives—and an overview of its holdings. She will describe the kind of genealogical information you might find, how to prepare for a research visit, and what to expect when you get there.

About Malissa: Malissa Ruffner holds JD and MLS degrees from the University of Maryland and worked in several fields before heeding the call of genealogy. She was a volunteer at the Baltimore City Archives for several years and has conducted personal and client research on-site. A graduate of ProGen 5, she is a member of APG National Capital Area Chapter and an at-large board member of the Maryland Genealogical Society.
