Program: Vicki Lee of the Maryland State Archives presenting Caring for your Family Treasures

Program Description:

Caring for your Family Treasures, with Q&A

Vicki will share information on how to best store and handle your various family treasures. There will be time for questions and answers at the end of the lecture. (Participants may bring 1 object to receive a brief consultation - please remind them that my specialty is with books and paper)

Vicki Lee

Vicki Lee has been in the conservation field for the past 25 years. Vicki has been employed at the Maryland State Archives since 2000 and was made the Head of the Conservation Lab in 2003. She has been the Director of Preservation and Conservation since 2013. She treats a variety of items in the general and special collections of the Archives as well as oversees projects in the lab, the training of interns in the Summer Program and gives lectures on a variety of topics such as collections care and disaster recovery.
