

The next meeting of the

National Capital Area Chapter

of the Association of Professional Genealogists

will be held on Saturday, July 15, 2017 at 2:00pm at the National Archives, Washington, DC, and via Go To Webinar!<sup>1</sup>

After a short business meeting our program will be

“Merging DNA results with Traditional Genealogy Research: Tips for Professional Genealogists”

Presented by Shannon Combs-Bennett

Shannon Combs-Bennett is an award winning author, lecturer and researcher based out of Northern Virginia. She earned her BS in Biology from Indiana University and is currently pursuing an MSc in Genealogic, Heraldic and Paleographic studies from the University of Glasgow, Scotland. In the field of genealogy, Shannon has completed the Boston University online genealogical certificate program, ProGen, and the required 40 courses through the National Institute of Genealogical Studies earning her PLCGS in American Records. You may recognize her name if you are a subscriber to Legacy Family Tree Webinars or if you read Family Tree Magazine as she is a contributor to both organizations. Shannon is active in several genealogical societies, lineage organizations and she currently serves as the Southeast Regional Director for the International Society of Family History Writers and Editors.

---

<sup>1</sup> GoToWebinar keys will be emailed to NCAC APG members the week before the meeting for log-in.